

1942 JAPANESE CANADIAN INTERMENT AT HASTINGS PARK

In early 1942, over 8,000 Japanese Canadians were detained in Hastings Park before being sent to internment sites in the BC interior or to work camps across the country. A new outdoor exhibit and related website preserve the stories and images of this important history.

www.hastingspark1942.ca

Mary and Rose Ohara, 1942

YOU ARE INVITED

Please join us for the unveiling of four panels introducing the history of Japanese Canadians at Hastings Park in 1942.

Sunday, April 26, 2015, 1:00 to 3:30pm

The Hastings Room in Hastings Park

Directions: Go through Gate 2 off Renfrew Street, next to the PNE Administration Offices

Tour: Meet at 1:00pm at the Hastings Room for a tour of the signs.

Reception: At 2:00pm, following the tour, we will return to the Hastings Room for a short program and light refreshments.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

www.hastingspark1942.ca

These panels were developed by a coalition of Japanese Canadian community groups and individuals.

